Colonel Young Calls Meeting.

Col. James R. Young, chairman, has called another meeting of the agricultural loan agency of the war finance corporation to approve additional applications from North Carolina banks for loans. At a meeting last week the agency approved loans aggregating $750,000, and several hundred thousand dollars more is expected to be turned over to banks.

Judges May Be Transferred.

Washington. — The transfer of Judge Webb to West Virginia to hold court was discussed in the judiciary committee in connection with the proposed legislation increasing the number of judges. Under it, if passed, a judge could be ordered to hold court in any section of the country where the docket is crowded.

Watts Will File Answer.

Answer will be filed in the suits of the railroads against the state's taxing powers within the time fixed by court, and until then no announcement will be forthcoming as to the state's position in the case, Revenue Commissioner Watts said. When the answer is filed, however, it will give the state's position fully. The statement from the tax commissioner came, he said, because of numerous inquiries which had been received by him throughout a number of sections of the state.

Wade Favors Tax Exemption.

Insurance Commissioner Stacy W. Wade favors exempting building and loan associations from taxation, he states in his annual report, showing that last year over $80,000 in taxes was collected from them, not one cent being used for supervision. The assets of all the associations in the state at the end of 1920 amounted to $29,368,115 as against $23,452,771 in 1919, while the number of shareholders have increased to 831,404.

IS YOUR HEALTH GRADUALLY SLIPPING?

Interesting Experience of a Texas Lady Who Declares That if More Women Knew About Cardui They Would Be Spared Much Sickness and Worry.

Navasota, Texas. — Mrs. W. M. Peden, of this place, relates the following interesting account of how she recovered her strength, having realized that she was actually losing her health:

"Health is the greatest thing in the world, and when you feel that gradually slipping away from you, you certainly sit up and take notice. That is what I did some time ago when I found myself in a very nervous, run-down condition of health. I was so tired and felt so lifeless I could hardly go at all.

"I was just no account for work. I would get a bucket of water and would feel so weak I would have to set it down before I felt like I could lift it to the shelf. In this condition, of course, to do even my housework was a task almost impossible to accomplish.

"I was . . . nervous and easily upset.

I couldn't rest well at night and was . . . just lifeless.

"I heard of Cardui and after reading I decided I had some female trouble that was pulling me down. I sent for Cardui and began it . . .

"In a very short while after I began the Cardui Home Treatment I saw an improvement and it wasn't long until I was all right—good appetite, splendid rest, and much stronger so that I easily did my housework.

"Later I took a bottle of Cardui as a tonic. I can recommend Cardui and gladly do so, for if more women knew, it would save a great deal of worry and sickness."

The enthusiastic praise of thousands of other women who have found Cardui helpful should convince you that it is worth trying. All druggists sell it.
